

Open Meeting

Proposed Mental Health Unit for Young People

15 November 2013
9.30 am – 2.00 pm

The Town Hall, Municipal Buildings, Boscawen Street, Truro, TR1 2NE

Cornwall Partnership NHS Foundation Trust, supported by the Invictus Trust, is developing a business case setting out the need for a mental health unit to support young people.

The proposed £5 million unit will offer a dedicated hospital facility for young people with mental health problems between the ages of 13 - 25.

If you would like to find out more about the proposals and to talk to those involved in the plans, please join us at our open meeting.

Agenda

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| 9.30 am | Displays available for view |
| 10.00 am | Presentation followed by a question and answer session
Chaired by Sarah Newton, MP |
| 11.15 am | The opportunity to informally chat with clinicians, managers and the architects on the proposed developments.

Information from organisations including the Invictus Trust and Hear Our Voice. |
| 2.00 pm | Close |